

News report: Five Pillars Taekwon-Do – Colour Belt Grading

Date: Sunday 25th March 2018

Location: Wood Green Taekwon-Do School, London N22 8HE

Five Pillars Taekwon-Do held the first colour belt grading for 2018, conducted by Founder, Head Instructor and Examiner of Five Pillars Taekwon-Do Mr Malik Ayman 4th degree, with attendance of Grading Panel Assistant Mr Colin Howler 3rd degree, and Administration Manager Mrs Maimuna Ayman, also in addition supported by Assistant Instructors (all 1st degrees), Mr Ben Musker, Ms Rebecca Van Doimen, Mr Bradyn Man, Mr Sohaib Sirhan.

A very good standard was displayed by all the students that took their respective grading examinations, who were tested thoroughly as Five Pillars Taekwon-Do grading standard requirements, in order to achieve desired outcomes of both high standards and empowering confidence of techniques.

All students were successful with several students achieving, either O Ordinary pass or O+ Ordinary Plus, and with the highest grade A+ Advanced Plus grade being awarded to only 1 student, congratulations to Mr Marc Atse (Wembley Taekwon-Do School) who passed his Yellow Belt 8th Kup grading and displayed high level of physical, technical, theoretical understanding.
